

Manchester Primary Heads Residential

Thursday 28th and Friday 29th September 2023

Cottons Hotel & Spa, Manchester Road, Knutsford, WA16 0SU

Thursday Evening Keynote: The Real David Cameron

Working in schools until the early 90s, David has experience in school leadership at all levels. He led a major national development of curriculum and assessment in Scotland. He was Director of Children's Services for Stirling Council as well as Head of Education in East Lothian. He has been an advisor for large groups of schools leading on areas such as QA and curriculum. David is committed to ensuring that all young people have an education that brings richness to their lives. He wants them to be able to think for themselves and to be committed to building a better world than the one that they are inheriting.

Friday Keynote: David Taransaud

David Taransaud is a psychotherapeutic counsellor, consultant, author, and trainer with 20 years experience working with challenging youth. He is the author of several books including 'You Think I'm Evil: Practical strategies for working with aggressive and rebellious adolescents' and 'The Rage for Life'. David also works as a foreign consultant in Karachi (Pakistan) and travelled to Kitgum (Uganda) where he independently set up an Art Therapy service in an orphanage for former child soldiers and young people affected by conflict and trauma.

There will also be an exciting selection of workshops to choose from on the Friday, details of which will be confirmed later in the term.

"TIME and opportunity to relax and connect with other headteachers".

2022 Conference
Feedback

"Networking, wellbeing ideas, new skills, ideas to take back to leadership team."

"Being together, speakers reigniting my leadership skills, recognising my 'why', lovely to get to know colleagues."

"For once, not focussed on all the documents we all know we have to read! The best conference I have ever been on".
